TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

In the 1560s, the Council of Trent attempted to standardize the widely variant customs for the pastoral care of the sick and dying. We had inherited a practice called “extreme unction,” from the Latin words meaning anointing at the point of death. The deeper tradition, however, is about the prayer of faith that will heal and restore the sick person, and is straight from the Letter of James. The Fathers went back to the beginning, and while not discarding the “extreme unction” name, made a plea for the proper use of this sacrament. As soon as a person is in danger of death from sickness or old age, they reasoned, the time for the sacrament had already arrived.

As a result of this desire, the next ritual text for anointing contained an innovation: a rite for visiting the sick that included readings from scripture, psalms, and prayers. Old customs fade slowly, however, and the quality of pastoral care languished for centuries while people delayed the celebration of a consoling and effective sacrament, sometimes missing the opportunity completely. A priest ministering to a dying and unconscious patient alone in a room has never been the desire of the Church. Our tradition is far too rich for this sacrament to be celebrated in such a diminished and ungenerous manner.

My Beloved Brothers and Sisters,

Again we are into a New Year, 2015. As I get older, the years move along faster and faster. As the old Latin phrase reminds us: "Time flies; remember your final end." But in the meantime, let us live each day to the fullest. Yesterday is past; tomorrow is yet to come; today is here with us now! Look at it as yet another gift from God and make the best of it. I wish all of you a blessed, healthy and HAPPY NEW YEAR - 2015! May God continue to bless each one of you and our parish of All Saints.

Again you have made my Christmas a happy and merry one. I thank you for the many good wishes, beautiful cards, notes and good eats and drinks (wines) that you gave me during this Christmas Season. Each one is greatly appreciated.

Today is a special day in our parish as we bless and dedicate the beautiful painting of Jesus and the Samaritan Woman at the well by artist and parishioner, Catherine Whiteswan at the 8:30 a.m. Mass. The story of the Samaritan Woman is a story of great awakening and manifestation of the mercy and forgiveness of Jesus to the woman and to all mankind. The painting will adorn our Reconciliation Room and will serve as a reminder to penitents of that mercy and forgiveness for all who are repentant. The Epiphany is a 'manifestation' of Jesus to all nations of the earth as represented by the Three Kings who came from foreign lands and found the newborn king. We are truly grateful to Catherine for this beautiful artwork and the parish says: THANK YOU, CATHERINE! Your talents and love and generosity will be appreciated by many for years to come.

Blessings,
Msgr. Adam

Religious Education Upcoming Events

Religious Formation registration remains open all year. Give the "light" that guided the Magi to your child, the light is Christ... He leads to eternity. Religious Formation begins this week on January 6 at our Public Schools and here at the church campus on January 11. It is not too late to register your child if not already with our faith formation programs. Forms can be found in the foyer of the church or you may register electronically on the parish website. Also, we take registration at class times on Sundays and Wednesdays as well as at the following public schools – Harvard, Love, Sinclair and Travis Elementary, Hamilton and Hogg Middle School. and Reagan High School. We are a parish that PRACTICES reaching out to share the faith with all.

Bible Study RESUMES on January 11 with the English group meeting at 9:45 AM and the Spanish at 11:30 AM in the Parish Hall.

Spiritual Renewal Book Discussion will meet on January 12th and 19th from 7:00 PM to 8:15 PM in TALC Room 2. "The Four Signs of a Dynamic Catholic" discussion leader is Dan Schwietzman. Extra books are available free while the supply lasts in the parish office. Are you ready to let God take your spiritual life to the next level? Do you want to help reinvigorate your parish? Matthew Kelly promises to take you on a journey that will motivate you to live out the genius of Catholicism in your daily life. Let Jesus be reborn in your heart and our world. All are welcome to join the discussion with or without the book. The next three-part discussion series is with the book "The Real Jesus" from January 26th - February 9th.

Adult Confirmation Program is taking enrollment starting in January. Please contact Ed. Colbert (English) – edcolbert@sbcglobal.net or John Guzman (Spanish) john.guzman@allsaints.us.com or Dan at the parish office to sign up. In English and Spanish. It will begin in February with confirmation in May.

Volunteer efforts in our formation programs. Volunteer efforts by several dozen parishioners make this possible. Some serve as teachers and aides, others on committees such as Adult Ed, with the youth and children for events, and in the office to prepare materials. We will begin our first confession and communion program in March through the end of June for which we will need another 10 or 12 volunteers. If you are seeking ways to help get the message of Christ out, you convert yourself from a disciple (learner) to an apostle (a doer who goes out to others). Call Dan or Adriana at the office or email us if you wish to get moving in the New Year.

El registro para la Formación Religiosa está abierto todo el año. Dale la luz a Su Hijo que guió a LOS MAGOS, la luz es Cristo que lleva la vida eterna. Formación religiosa comienza la semana del 6 de enero en nuestras escuelas públicas y aquí en la iglesia el 11 de enero. No es demasiado tarde para registrar tu hijo si no está registrado. Las formas de registro las pueden encontrar en el atrio de la iglesia o pueden enrostrarlos electrónicamente en el sitio de internet. Además, aceptamos registros durante el horario de clases el Domingo (9:15 y 11:15 AM) y el Miércoles (6:45 PM), así como en las siguientes escuelas públicas elementales - Harvard, Love, Sinclair y Travis; Hamilton y Hogg MS; Reagan HS. Estas clases son sin costo alguno para la familia, sólo su tiempo para traerlos y dar importancia a desarrollar la fe de sus hijos (traigan a sus nietos, avisen a sus vecinos, etc.....). Somos una parroquia que PRACTICA lo que cree: compartir la fe con todos.

Programa de Confirmación para Adultos: Aceptaremos registros comenzando el mes de Enero. Hablen por favor con Ed Colbert (Inglés) edcolbert@sbcglobal.net o con John Guzman (Español) john.guzman@allsaints.us.com o registrarse con Dan en la oficina de la iglesia en Inglés o Español. Comenzaremos en Febrero para hacer la confirmación en Mayo.

Esfuerzo y Compromiso de algunos Voluntarios en nuestros programas de formación: El esfuerzo de los voluntarios, varias docenas de ellos, hacen todo esto posible. Algunos sirven como maestros y ayudantes, otros ayudan en los comités como el Comité de Educación para Adultos, en eventos para jóvenes y niños, en labores de oficina preparando materiales... Nosotros comenzaremos nuestro programa de la primera confesión y comunión en Marzo hasta finales de Junio, para el cual necesitaremos otros 10 ó 12 voluntarios. Si ustedes buscan formas de ayudarnos para cumplir el mensaje de Cristo, pueden ustedes mismos convertirse de discípulo (el que está aprendiendo) en un apóstol (el que va a enseñar a otros). Llamen a Dan o Adriana a la oficina o por e-mail, si desean comenzar en el Año Nuevo.

THE WATERS OF BAPTISM

When new sod is put in, it needs constant saturation with water. Landscapers say that this “knits” the sod to the soil. The same when a branch is grafted onto a tree: the poultice that joins them at the splice must be kept wet at all times. Water is the stuff that binds the very cells of our bodies together. No wonder religions throughout all times and cultures have used it so prominently. When Jesus stepped into the Jordan for baptism, he “knit” himself to what had come before him. By going to the Jordan, he made himself one with the people of Israel who had crossed it into their Promised Land. With John the Baptist, Christ wove himself into the prophetic tradition that heralded the coming reign of God. He had become fully human in the waters of Mary’s womb, and by partaking in the rite of the baptism of repentance, Jesus identified himself with our sinful, frail humanity. It is through the waters of baptism that Christ continues to graft new members onto his Body, the Church; through these waters we are cleansed from sin and filled with the promise of grace, given our destiny for eternal life. For us, as for Jesus, it is also the waters of baptism that inaugurate our mission to proclaim the Good News.
