GRATITUDE

O Thou who has given us so much, mercifully grant us one thing more—a grateful heart.—George Herbert

My Beloved Brothers and Sisters,
 As the summer is coming to a close, we must now redirect our minds and hearts to our parish community of faith and what it means to us. These words from Pope Francis struck me in a powerful way. As I read thru them my thought was: "He is speaking to all of us." Read them slowly and prayerfully: "Instead of being just a church that welcomes and receives by keeping the doors open, let us try also to be a church that finds new roads, that is able to step outside itself and go to those who do not attend Mass, to those who have quit or are indifferent." What does this mean for us? It means that we look around us and see who we know as Catholics who are no longer practicing their faith. Approach them. But where do we start. I have a suggestion. I read a few weeks ago that statistics tell us that within seven (7) years 85 % of those being Confirmed in the faith NO LONGER attend Mass. That is an alarming figure...85% !! Many of you have been sponsors for someone for the Sacrament of Confirmation. As their sponsor have you kept up with them and supported them and encouraged them in their faith? Are they among the 85 % ? Do you know? Go to them and stay in touch with the young person who you promised to help and support in their faith. Our young people today have so many temptations and influences tempting them to 'abandon' their faith. A good responsible sponsor can do a lot to keep them active and leaning and practicing their faith. As Pope Francis said: "go to those who do not attend Mass, to those who have quit or are indifferent." The Pope's words are clear and simple. Will they make a difference?
 Blessings for a prayerful and good week. Msgr. Adam

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Frecuentemente, los santos y santas son personas molestas que desafían tanto a los fieles como a los infieles. Tal es el caso del agustino Ezequiel Moreno Díaz (1848-1906), obispo de Pasto, Colombia. Nació en La Rioja, España, en el seno de una familia pobre. En 1865 ingresó en la orden de los agustinos y fue enviado como misionero a Filipinas. Luego se ofreció como misionero en Colombia donde buscó renovar la orden de los agustinos. En 1895 el Papa León XIII lo nombró obispo de Parma, lugar en el que le esperaba un martirio moral de calumnias, desprecios y humillaciones por parte de las autoridades civiles. Sus mensajes y desafíos pastorales llevaron a los fieles a un mayor fervor apostólico a tal grado, que incomodó al gobierno. En 1898 buscó renunciar a su puesto como Obispo para no continuar como causa de polémicas y problemas para la Iglesia. El Papa no permitió su renuncia, más bien lo animó a seguir promoviendo el celo apostólico por el bien del pueblo. La polémica nunca debe desanimar a los fieles en Cristo cuando se trata de mejorar la vida moral de la sociedad en la que se encuentran.
